

BY-LAWS OF THE OREGON STATE ASSOCIATION NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF LETTER CARRIERS

All references to gender in these by-laws will be neutral in meaning.

ARTICLE I NAMES & OBJECTIVES

Section 1. This Association shall be known as the Oregon State Association, National Association of Letter Carriers.

Section 2. The objectives of this Association are to assist the National Association of Letter Carriers in maintaining a more perfect organization and improving the Postal Career Service; to organize all letter carriers within the State; to conduct training and education seminars for all members; and to guide; and direct all activities relating to legislation within the State; represent all Branches when requested by the Branch.

ARTICLE II MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Membership in this Association shall be composed of all members within the geographical boundaries of Oregon that are in good standing in the National Association of Letter Carriers.

ARTICLE III MEETINGS

Section 1. This Association shall meet at least once each year at such time and place as may be decided upon a majority vote at a previous session unless conditions should arise which require a change in the date and place decided upon or designated, when the President and Executive Board shall have authority to make such change of time and place and report same through the Secretary-Treasurer. The regular meeting of this Association shall be annually.

Section 2. Special meetings shall be called by the President upon the written request of not less than one-half of the Branches that are in good standing and representing not less than one-fourth of the membership of this Association. The Secretary-Treasurer shall notify, by letter, each Branch entitled to representation in this Association stating the object of the call. This meeting shall transact no business than that stated in the call.

Section 3. The Secretary-Treasurer shall mail notices of all meetings at least thirty (30) days previous to the time of the meeting, requesting information on the number to be in attendance for the banquet and reservations, and in case of special meetings, the business to be transacted.

Section 4. Fifty (50) delegates representing at least seven (7) branches shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but less than that number may adjourn to meet at some future specified time.

Section 5. No one, not a member in good standing in the National Association of Letter Carriers, shall be allowed to attend a regular business meeting of this Association, provided that when an invited guest is present, a recess may be called. All invitations to the annual Banquet to those outside the Association shall be issued with the approval of the Executive Board.

ARTICLE IV REVENUE

Section 1. The dues of the Association shall be equal to 1 hour of top pay of the non-technician Letter Carrier pay scale per annum, which shall be deducted from each bi-weekly paycheck. This dues amount shall increase with each increase in the Letter Carrier pay. The State Association may forgive any/all dues raises when recommended by the Executive Board. Each Retired member and Retired Associate member shall pay Two Dollars and Forty cents ($2.40) per annum, (subject to change thru the By-Law amendment process), payable semi-annually on January 1st and July 1st or by annuity deduction based on the National Per Capita list.

Section 2. Any member failing to pay Per Capita Tax within thirty (30) days after same shall have become due shall forfeit their membership; provided, that the State Association for good and sufficient reason under reasonable rules uniformly applied may extend the thirty (30) days grace period for not more than an additional sixty (60) days.

Section 3. Associate members are not eligible to be candidates for any State Association office or delegates to any Convention.

ARTICLE V REPRESENTATION AND VOTE

Section 1. Those who shall be entitled to a voice and vote in the meetings of this Association shall be its Officers and Delegates from Branches.

Section 2. The basis of representation and vote in this Association shall be: One (1) delegate for each subordinate Branch Charter; One (1) additional delegate for each five (5) members up to and including fifty (50); each Branch having fifty (50) or more members shall be entitled to one (1) delegate for each fifteen (15) members or the majority faction thereof for the portion of their membership over and above fifty (50) members.

Section 3. Election of delegates shall be made no later than December of the year preceding the Convention year. No less than forty-five (45) days before each election, the Secretary-Treasurer shall mail to every member notice of the election, stating the Offices for which election shall be had and the time, place and manner for nominations and election. For the purposes of this provision, the requirement that notices be mailed may be satisfied by publication of the notice in the Postal Record or in State or Branch publications that are mailed to the last known address of the member.

Section 4. The number of members for whom per capita tax is paid into this Association for the term beginning January 1, prior to the Convention, shall determine the number of delegates to which a Branch is entitled.

Section 5. Each delegate in attendance shall be entitled to one (1) vote for each office or position to be filled. Any remaining votes to which a Branch is entitled shall be divided first, in whole votes, equally among those delegates, each pro rata. Those delegates then may select one of their number to cast the remainder of the votes to which the Branch is entitled. That delegate must be certified, in writing, to cast such votes by their Branch Secretary or Chair of the Branch delegation, and such certification must be provided to the Secretary-Treasurer of the State Association. All delegates must cast all votes, to which they are entitled, by secret ballot. Each ballot shall be enclosed in an envelope bearing the branch number of the delegate casting that ballot.

Section 6. A delegate cannot be admitted to the meetings of this Association whose Branch is in arrears either of this Association or to the National Association of Letter Carriers.

Section 7. Branch Secretaries shall submit a list, type-written and alphabetized, of the names of their delegates elected to the State Convention to the State President, and Host City Secretary within ten (10) days after the election of delegates.

Section 8. Upon receipt of the convention call, individual branches sending delegates will verify their delegates by sending a list of all delegates to the host branch and the State Secretary-Treasurer.

Section 8a. Branches will mail a check for registration fees and send with the delegate list to the State Secretary-Treasurer. When the State Secretary-Treasurer receives confirmation that registration payment was received by the Secretary-Treasurer, they will contact the paying branch of how to make appropriate reservations for housing and meals.

Section 8b. The host branch will coordinate the delegate list with the State Secretary-Treasurer, who will provide a final copy to the host branch no less than seven days prior to the beginning of the convention. The same list will be presented to the credentials committee upon arrival at the convention. If the host branch asks for help or can't do registration, the state can/may take over the process, which will be voted on by the executive board on how that will be done.

ARTICLE VI OFFICERS

Section 1. Any regular member in good standing shall be eligible to any office of this Association, except the Director of Retired Members, who shall be a retired member.

Section 2. At all meetings of the State Officers called by the President, with approval of the Executive Board, where mileage and per diem is paid, minutes shall be kept by the Recording Secretary, a resume of which shall be published in the State newsletter in the issue following such meeting.

Section 3. If State Association Officers receive personal expense compensation from another source, such as their Branch, for attendance to, and participation in, a State Association function, then they shall have a like amount deducted from their allowable State Officer expenses when said compensation is for the same expense in order to prevent dual compensation of expenses.

ARTICLE VII NOMINATIONS and ELECTIONS

Section 1. Nominations and elections shall take place in the off-year of the National Convention for all elected Offices except the Five (5) Executive Board and the Two (2) alternate Delegate-at-Large positions, which will take place on the opposing year. Nominations shall be held between 10:30 A.M. and Noon on the first day of the Convention. Elections shall be held on the Second day as the first order of business. The installation of Officers shall take place prior to adjournment.

Section 2. When there is more than One (1) candidate for the same office, it shall require a plurality of all votes cast for such office to elect, such votes to be by ballot.

Section 3. All candidates for office must be present at the time of their nomination, or must submit a signed statement accepting the nomination, and stating they will serve if elected.

Section 4. The elective officers of this Association shall be elected to and hold office for the term of two (2) years, or until a successor is appointed or elected and fills the office.

Section 5. Days of salary shall be paid on a no loss no gain basis. No person shall receive lost time compensation from this Association for hours in which they are in a pay status with the Postal Service. Salary shall not be paid for more than 8 hours in a day (inclusive of any time in a pay status with the Postal Service) and shall be paid at the straight time rate of pay the person regularly receives from the Postal Service. If the person is a retiree, their rate of pay shall be the highest step of Grade 1 of the Letter Carrier pay scale (Table 1).

ARTICLE VIII DUTIES OF OFFICERS

PRESIDENT

Section 1. The President shall preside at all meetings of this Association and enforce all laws thereof. They shall fill all vacancies occasioned by death or otherwise, with persons duly qualified, until the next regular election is held.
